

Caribbean Beckons Tonight

By Diane Moericke

Carnival plans are nearing completion as Knights and Knighties prepare to set sail on a "Caribbean Holiday" at 7:00 tonight in Knights Gym.

Carnival goers will be treated to many novel booths this year with a variety of prizes to be given away.

Caribbean mementoes will be provided this year in the form of hats and leis which may be purchased during the evening. Hats will sell for 30 cents and leis for 5 cents.

KING AND QUEEN candidates have been nominated by six housing units.

Units and their candidates are Alpha House—Lindy Zerrudo and Victor Lachica; Beta House—Sharon Hampton and Albert Goldammer; and Gamma House—Maxine Bauer and Harold Shudlick.

Dormitories with candidates are Grossmann Hall—Barbara Matthias and Duane Meier; Hebron Hall—Sharon Cox and Lowell Grunwald; and Vollmer Hall—Marjo Hummel and Gerald Staehling.

VOTING FOR the candidates will be done with pennies during the evening. Students are urged to remember that it is not necessary to vote for a couple, that each person is running independently.

Winners will be decided on a percentage basis, computed by dividing the total amount of money taken by the number of people living in the housing units first nominating them. The highest average for king and queen nominees will win.

The king and queen will be crowned during the middle of the sock hop, which will last until 11:30 p.m.

Carnival night will conclude with an extra hour for the women as the WJC is holding a Penny Night, with all proceeds to go toward the Student Body Project.

Fredrick To Give Talk To BSA

"The Role of the Business Office in the College Community" is the title of the talk which Walter Fredrick, Jr., business manager of Wartburg College, will give to the Business Students Association at its April meeting next Wednesday evening.

The meeting will be held in Old Main, Room 100, at 7:30 p.m.

In his talk Mr. Fredrick will explain some of the methods and procedures which are involved in carrying out the business of the office.

At the club banquet on May 17 the 1962-63 Wall Street Journal Award will be presented to a senior member of the club who has played an active role in the organization.

The recipient of the award receives a one year's subscription to the Wall Street Journal and a commemorative paper weight, in addition to being noted on the Wall Street Journal plaque in the Business Administration Department.

Wartburg To Entertain HS Journalists

A High School Journalism Conference will be held on campus next Friday and Saturday featuring professional journalists and teachers as speakers.

Registration will be held from 9-10 a.m. on Friday in the Chapel-auditorium.

ACTIVITIES ON the agenda include a Friday morning lecture on "Headline Writing and Make-up" by Stewart Haas of the Waterloo Courier and a talk by Ed Grady, editor of Maquoketa Newspapers, entitled "A Big Frog."

Friday afternoon will feature a demonstration of printing the mimeographed magazine or newspaper and the use of color by the Waterloo Typewriter Exchange.

Cy Wainscott, managing editor, Ashland (Ohio) Times-Gazette, will moderate a panel discussion entitled "Editorials, Their Writing and the Formation of Editorial Policies."

Panelists will be Paul G. Norris, Jr., of Marshalltown, president of the Iowa Daily Press Association; Miss Marguerite Blough of East High, Waterloo; Mrs. Wayne Minert of the Waverly-Shell Rock High School; and Charles Lutz of Minneapolis, editor of ONE magazine.

COMPETITION IN feature writing, sports writing, editorial writing and news writing will be held for those students who have been enrolled by their high school teachers.

Jerry Meyer of KVVY, Waverly radio station, will talk on "Opportunities in Radio and Television."

The evening banquet will be held at Carver's with Prof. Walter Steigleman, School of Journalism, State University of Iowa, Iowa City, giving an after-dinner address, entitled "Say Now Shibboleth."

The banquet will be followed by attendance of the campus-produced musical comedy, "Once upon a Mattress."

SATURDAY WILL feature a panel, "The Job of Producing an Annual" with Donald Freeman, Waverly-Shell Rock High School, as moderator.

Carl Solberg of the Inter-Collegiate Press, Inc.; Ben Compton of Herff Jones Co., publishers of yearbooks; and Ed Droste of the Waverly Publishing Co., will be on the panel.

Tutoring Society Project Considered For Wartburg

Through the combined efforts of the Student Senate and the Academic Life Committee, Wartburg is now considering beginning a new tutoring society called Sigma Tau Sigma.

Sigma Tau Sigma, which was begun at the University of Pennsylvania in 1954, is a voluntary tutoring society.

THIS GROUP is to serve a three-fold purpose of providing instruction free of charge to those students who desire to improve their scholastic standing, stimulating among the student body an increased interest in the teaching profession and contributing to the scholarship and intellectual atmosphere of our colleges and universities.

All tutoring services would be free of charge and would offer no monetary returns for the tutor. Persons who would volunteer to tutor would have only one or two students to tutor per semester and only in the subjects they volunteered to tutor in.

The society itself would have no particular function except as a headquarters where those wishing to be tutored and those willing to tutor would come to leave their names. In Wartburg's case this might possibly be the Senate room.

INTEREST WAS created in this project last fall when Student Body President Dick Buchsteiner came in contact with some information concerning it and turned it over to the Academic Life Committee for consideration.

The Academic Life Committee

Weekend Features Broadway Musical

"Once Upon a Mattress," a musical version of "The Princess and the Pea," will be presented by the Wartburg Drama and Music Departments next Friday and Saturday.

Beginning at 8 p.m. in the Chapel-auditorium, the production will involve almost ninety people in acting, dancing, singing, stage work and orchestration.

The musical ran for a season and a half on Broadway with Carol Burnett playing the lead, according to co-director John Gill, Speech Department. The composer is Mary Rodgers, daughter of Richard Rodgers, Gill added.

A special pit orchestra, composed of 19 members from the Wartburg-Waverly community, will play the music, according to co-director Dr. James Fritschel, Music Department.

Stage managers are Al Sandau and Jerry Franzen, juniors. Choreographer is Dee Ann Dreier.

Gill further pointed out that Wartburg students must pay to see this musical. Because of the large production costs, admission fee will be one dollar.

Three Earn Top Regents

Fifteen high school seniors have been awarded the Regents' scholarships for the academic years 1964 to 1968, according to Dean of Women Florence Hertlein.

Recipients of the Regents Scholarships are John Fritschel, Aurora, Colo.; Ruth Pirsig, Oak Lawn, Ill.; and David Ziegler, Reading, Pa. Each will receive $1,600 to be distributed equally over four years.

REGENTS' MERIT Scholarships awards went to Roger Namrath, Cosmos, Minn.; Judy Maxwell, Sterling, Ill.; Shirley Mitchell, Merrill, Wis.; and James Stratton, Stoughton, Wis. The $800 Merit scholarships are evenly distributed over four years.

Winners of the $650 Regents' Honor Scholarships are Edith Dodd, Milwaukee, Wis.; Patricia Ann Gatzke, Wykoff, Minn.; Julianne Meyne, Denver; Joan Noble, Tama; and Vanice Vandree, Clintonville, Wis. They will be awarded $200 the first year and $150 for the following three years.

HIGH SCHOOL seniors applying for the scholarships must be in the upper 5 per cent of their class in academic standing, according to Mrs. Hertlein.

Seniors invited to participate in the program are awarded on the basis of their achievement in tests administered in the program, the breadth of their high school activities, financial need and the personality judgments of the scholarship committee.

Nine Picked For Senate

Senate elections were held last Thursday for the '63-'64 class senators. Senior senators were elected as a result of a two-way tie which was broken at a special election on Friday.

Junior senators are Bob Braun, State Center; Kathy Lewellan, Cedar Falls; and Harold Shudlick, Rice Lake, Wis.

Recital Set

David Nickel, pianist, and Dennis Wesenberg, baritone, will give their Senior Recitals in the Chapel-auditorium tomorrow at 8 p.m.

Nickel will play pieces by Mozart and Debussy. Wesenberg, accompanied by Phyllis Remmers, will sing pieces by Schubert, Mendelssohn, Lehmann, Mozart and Quilter.

'The Man I Am ...'

This editorial was taken from the Associated Collegiate Press Parade of Opinion which prints editorials from member schools, this one being from Moorhead State College, Moorhead, Minn.

For once let us ignore the scholarly, the literate, the intelligent and the ambitious. Let us look at the average, everyday, wash-and-wear college student. What is he?

Why is he here? There is, of course, the over-riding, vital reason. A college degree is a key to a good job and a good salary for the ordinary person.

It is almost a certain way to gain security. This, for the insecure, makes the pain of getting a college degree bearable. Not only that, college is the place to go after high school.

His intellectual qualifications are rarely considered when it is decided that he shall attend college. Here in the United States the education is required for the man, not the man for the education.

The ordinary college student treats classes as a necessary evil. He goes at the beginning of a semester (to turn in his class card) and once in a while he goes to find out how much has been covered since the last time he went.

He realizes he is in college to get a degree, and this means passing exams. Since he usually rides a curve, he does the minimum amount of work necessary to get over, with perhaps a small margin of safety.

He little knows what a student commission is or what it does. He knows there is a convocation since he was asked to leave the library lounge. He is aware of a college paper with its comic strip. But he would never read this article.

He knows little and cares less about subcommittees. He does not participate in anything unless he is dragged to a social affair sponsored by students.

Since such a fuss is made over such organizations as fraternities, he is determined to join one. His chief concern then will be girls and sex. He probably will see movies that the censor board has not even had a chance at.

He is an enthusiastic member of some group of hard drinkers — or says he is — and tends to get stoned on weekends — or says he does.

His standard of an educated, well-informed person is one who reads "Time." He prefers "Life," "The Saturday Evening Post," "Sports Illustrated" and publications not on the "family reading list."

He has never watched the news on TV but likes the western and detective series. He knows more about the "Pondorosa Ranch" than about his own community.

He is an expert at producing reasons (instead of assignments) on time. He is incapable of writing two complete sentences with correct spelling, punctuation and grammar.

The foresight necessary to write a whole paragraph — namely, having the idea of where you are going when you begin — is beyond him. If it weren't for true-false and multiple choice questions, he would be at a loss.

He is an expert on sports but doesn't participate in any.

His 21st birthday will be spent in a noisy pub, defying bartenders to throw him out. He hopes to get out of college as quickly as possible, find the best-paying job with the longest holidays and highest pension available, and settle down to raise a family.

He wants to marry a girl not quite as intelligent as himself and one whom he suspects has never allowed herself to be kissed twice the same night by anyone but himself.

He hopes he won't have to think once he leaves college.

He probably will tell his children about the exciting, stimulating life he led at college. He will say, "It was the place that made me the man I now am."

Now there is a rumor out that someone has purposely started the rumor that said the rumor that gave the date of Outfly was nothing but a rumor.

If a man doesn't learn something new every day, he isn't alive any more.

With several new diamonds on campus, isn't it possible that the Easter bunny got a little mixed up?

North Hall says "Riverbank with Vigah." Who in the world is Vigah?

"NOTHING AGAINST YOU PERSONALLY, CLYDE WORTHY—IT'S JUST THAT WE FEEL YOU'RE NOT TAKING ADVANTAGE OF ALL YOUR OPPORTUNITIES HERE IN COLLEGE."

SHERER NONSENSE

Pollster's Story Related In Public Opinion Primer

By Mike Sherer

See the funny man. He is short and round. He is witty and gay. He is intelligent and nosy. He is from Princeton, N.J. He is asking questions. Ask, ask, ask. That is how he makes his living. He is a pollster.

Some people call him a national opinion research correlator. But not most people. Because they probably can't spell it.

Sherer

★ See the pollster work. Work, work, work. He is taking a poll. He is interviewing attorneys' secretaries. He is interviewing butchers' assistants. He is interviewing garbage collectors. Poll, poll, poll.

The pollster enjoys interviewing people. But sometimes they don't. They do not know Charles DeGaulle. They do not know Carl Rolvaag.

They do not know what is the capital of Yugoslavia. Boy, are they ignorant. Ignorant, ignorant, ignorant. But so is he. Because he thought they would know.

★ See the pollster write. He is writing fast. As a matter of fact, he is scribbling. You can scribble, too. But he does it in paragraphs.

★ Write, write, write. He is writing on note pads. They are small and square. They are unruled and handy. They are clean and white. Except when he drops them in a flower bed. Or into fresh cement. Or in the vicinity of hungry pets.

He has many note pads. They are in his coat pockets. They are in his trousers' pockets. They are in his briefcase. They are in a long trail on the sidewalk behind.

Which is probably just as well. It would have taken too long to tabulate them all anyway. And this way it is more random.

★ Hear the people complain. They do not like the pollster. Complain, complain: The pollster does not represent them fairly. He does not understand their views. He does not mention them by name in the New York Times.

★ See the pollster tabulate. He is tabulating the results. Tabulate, tabulate. That is a big word. It means something like calculate. Which is really just as bad.

See the pollster laugh. He is laughing at the results. He does this every week. Laugh, laugh, laugh. 94% do not understand the question. 67% have no opinion. 43% think something should be done about it. That makes 204%. It was a good survey.

Trackmen Tackle SCI Relays Today

By Bob Nelson

This afternoon Wartburg's trackmen will participate in the State College of Iowa Relays. The Knights will enter men in all running and field events.

Over eighty-five schools from Iowa, Minnesota, Missouri, Illinois and South Dakota will send athletes to this meet.

Yesterday the Knight cindermen engaged in the Iowa Conference Relays held at Pella. The top effort turned in for Wartburg was from Joel Niemann and Len Schmidt who finished 1-2 in the high jump.

Freshman Mike Peich set a school record with a 45 foot 6 inch put of the shot. Peich still finished fifth in his event.

The high hurdle shuttle relay team of Harry Shudlick, Norm Mielke, Jerry Zehr, and Niemann finished two-tenths of a second behind first place Luther.

Wartburg's sprint and medley, distant medley and mile relay teams all finished with thirds.

Cindermen will journey to Dubuque for a dual meet with Loras next Thursday. Coach Dave Olson expects a good meet again this year.

Last season the Knights defeated Loras 66½-64½ on the strength of a first place in the last event, the javelin throw.

Although Wartburg lost to Western Kentucky last Monday, 81-50, two school records were established. Bob Wachholz set one mark with an effort of 201 feet in the javelin throw.

Lothar Columbus turned in a time of 10 minutes, 17.9 seconds in the two-mile run for the other record.

Other winners for the Knights were Harry Shudlick in the high hurdles, Joe Niemann in the high jump, Lowell Syverson in the broad jump and Mike Peich in the shot put.

Netsters Take Loss In Match This Week

Wartburg netmen suffered their third dual defeat in a row Wednesday at the hands of the SCI Panthers at Cedar Falls by an 8-1 score.

Lone Wartburg victor was Dave Shalkhauser, who defeated Jim Lewallen of SCI, 10-8, 2-6, 6-3.

The doubles teams of Shinkay-Langholz and Wendt-Brown are playing in the conference doubles championship today at Pella. The next dual meet will be April 27 with the Dubuque netsters at the Knights' home courts.

Other results from the S.C.I. meet were:

Bill Eastman, SCI, defeated John Thalacker, 7-5, 6-3.

Results of the doubles matches were:

Schaumberg and Blackledge defeated Shinkay and Langholz, 6-0, 6-4.

Lewallen and Eastman defeated Thalacker and Shalkhauser, 6-3, 2-6, 6-4.

Busy Week Set For Knight Golf

Coach Norm Johansen's linksters have a busy schedule next week with two dual matches and the Drake Invitational Friday in Des Moines.

Today the Knights face the Dubuque Spartans at the Waverly course prior to facing the State College of Iowa, Monday, on the Panthers' home course in dual competition.

Jomen are anxious to avenge last year's losses to both the Dubuque and SCI squads. Although both have been hit by graduations, they are perennial golf powers in the area and should prove to be tough tests for Knight golfers.

A quadrangular meet will be held at Simpson, Indianola, on Thursday.

The annual Drake Invitational Tournament, held in conjunction with the Drake Relays, is a handicapped event with teams from every college and university in Iowa represented.

Handicaps are based on the total enrollment of each school in comparison with the other competing schools.

OPPIEMEN AT DUBUQUE

Win Number Six Is Day's Target

By Al Zimmermann

Wartburg diamondmen meet the Dubuque Spartans today in a double-header at Dubuque after opening the season with two wins against both Coe and Luther for a 4-0 season record.

Dubuque has a 2-2 mark after splitting with Upper Iowa and Central. Upper Iowa has a strong ball club this year and was rated as a possible threat to the Knight baseball throne in pre-season speculation.

Both Coe and Luther have poor early-season records which means the Oppiemmen may have a tough time when they play Dubuque today in spite of their 4-0 record.

Luther was also rated as a possible contender for the baseball championship this year, but the Norsemen have lost their chance to unseat the Knights.

"We like to beat Luther any time we can," said Earnest Oppermann, Wartburg baseball coach. He added, "We can call a season a success when we beat Luther."

Wartburg has held the Iowa Conference baseball championship title for two years, but the diamondmen have 14 conference games to play yet this season in their bid to hold the title. Wartburg is currently 2-0 in league play.

Juniors Dave Langrock and Leon Carley each have a 2-0 season pitching records, and both will see action against Dubuque today. Junior Gary Medlang and sophomores Kurt Marshek, Doyle Burn, Lowell Grunwald and Jim Ridge will back the two Knight pitchers during season play.

Wartburg is extremely deep in catching this year, according to Coach Oppermann, who said, "Wartburg has as fine a catching staff as any college."

Knight catchers are senior Frank Merrill, now playing third base; juniors Al Exner, the regular, and Karl Fink; sophomore Del Hennings, who started one game; and freshman Jim Renning, who several times has been a pinch hitter.

Fielders on the Knight team are all veterans of last year's conference championship team. Sophomore outfielder Arlyn Ristau is the team's best hitter so far this year with junior Bob Matthias a close second. Centerfielder Ray Bye, last year's leader, has only a .200 batting average, but he is the team's clutch hitter.

Freshman Roger Kittleson has shown outstanding ability at shortstop this year and will see plenty of action at that position during the season.

Looking beyond today's game with Dubuque, the diamondmen will host Central in a league twin-bill one week from today and on May 1 will meet State College of Iowa on the home diamond for Senior Day.

Softball Opens Spring Activity

Doug Goke defeated Don Dietzler, 8-7, this week to win the intramural wrestling title in the 167-pound class and complete the wrestling program for the year.

Softball pairings are posted in the Student Union for the 11 teams entered in this year's double elimination tournament. Clinton I will play Grossmann II and Cotta will meet Clinton III & Basement in the first two games of the tourney to be played at 4 p.m.

The schedule of games to be played on other dates will be posted in the Union and in the Convocation bulletin.

Participants in the tennis and golf tournaments are requested to complete playoffs as soon as possible. Pairings are posted in the Union.

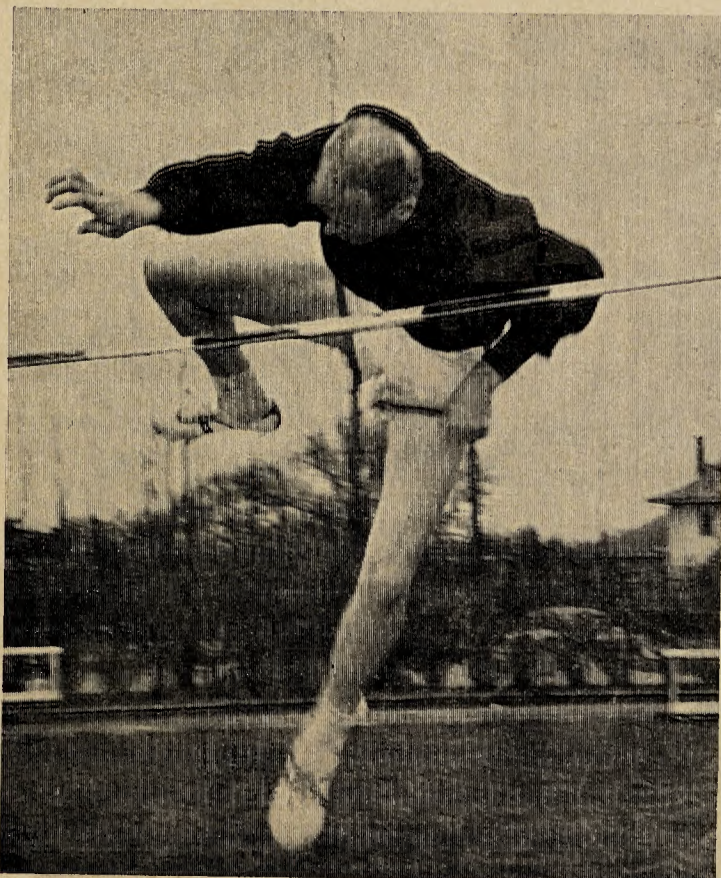

No action was scheduled last week in the coed bowling tournament due to Easter vacation, but the second round of that tourney is being played today at the Waverly Bowl-Inn.

Eighteen games have been played in the volleyball tournament to date. Gerald Baldner's team has a 3-0 record for undisputed lead in the American League and Dave Langrock's and Dan Knobloch's teams are tied for first place in the National League with 2-0 records.

James Prouty, Biology Department, will present a paper at the 75th session of the Iowa Academy of Science this weekend at Iowa State University, Ames.

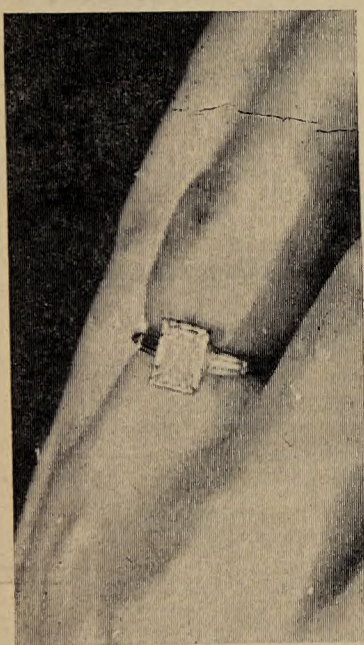

"The production of agglutinins in response to the antigens of Ascaris lumbricoides var. suum" is the title of the presentation.

Dr. J. O. Chellevold, dean of faculty, will address the Wartburg Alumni Club of Chicago in Oak Lawn, Ill., at a dinner meeting, Friday, April 26.

reb, Wis., are planning an August wedding. They became engaged over Easter vacation.

Easter vacation was also engagement time for Paul Wilken and Karen Schardt. Paul, a junior from Danforth, Ill., and Karen, a junior from Wichita, Kan., plan to be married in August.

Assistantships Given To Math Students

Graduate teaching assistantships in mathematics have been awarded to seniors Gordon Nipp, Council Bluffs, and Eric Meisgeier, Elkader.

Nipp, exchange student to University of Bonn last year, has accepted an assistantship to the University of Wisconsin, Madison.

Meisgeier will be attending the University of Indiana, Bloomington.

Both students are members of the Wartburg Chapter of Alpha Chi and have participated in the junior-senior seminar in number theory.

Two Films Top Convo This Week

Convocations for next week will feature two films, "Operation Abolition" and "Operation Correction."

"Operation Abolition," the 42-minute film to be shown on Tuesday, is a report of the so-called San Francisco riots which took place in May, 1960, in regard to the investigations of the House of Un-American Activities on Communism and Education.

"Operation Correction," the film for Thursday, is a rebuttal to Tuesday's film and attempts to give a more accurate account of what took place.

The purpose of these films is to show the difficulties encountered in reporting when two parties witness the same event and present contrasting reports.

Hampton, Prouty Awarded Grants

Dr. David Hampton, assistant professor of chemistry and James Prouty, instructor of biology, have been awarded National Science Foundation Research Participation Grants.

Dr. Hampton will do research in chemistry at Oregon State University, Corvallis. He will be investigating kinetics of the disproportionation of aromatic sulfinic acids.

This grant has been made to encourage basic research in small colleges.

Prouty will be doing research in microbiology at Indiana University, Bloomington. This will include direct involvement in phases of current research carried on by senior members.

Shekels Support SBP

Tonight will be the third Penny Night of the year. For a penny a minute Wartburg coeds will be allowed to stay out up to sixty minutes past the usual 11:30 p.m. hours.

Money from the Penny Night will be donated to the Student Body Project.

Over $112 has been collected from the previous nights, according to senior Doreen Davidson, president of Women's Co-ordinating Board, the sponsoring organization.

Rumors Fly - Outfly???

TENNIS ANYONE? Or will it be picnicking, golfing, bicycling, hiking, or just plain loafing when that long-awaited Ausflug arrives — the day that classes and studying are forgotten and Spring is welcomed.

Tickets Available

Seniors may exchange their invitations for tickets to the May 4 Junior-Senior Banquet any day next week in the Union from 11 a.m. till 1 p.m.

Tickets must be picked up by next Friday or seniors will be required to purchase them.

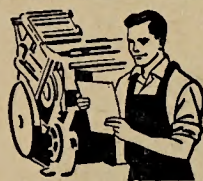

If seniors are unable to exchange their invitations at these times, they may get tickets from Alene Aulich or Dick Braun, banquet co-chairmen.

Reformatory Chaplain To Speak Wednesday

Father Cyril F. Engler, Catholic Chaplain at the Iowa Men's Reformatory in Anamosa, will speak at Passavant Club Wednesday evening at 7:30 in Grossmann Hall Lounge.

Father Engler has done considerable work with juvenile delinquency in Iowa.

Everyone is invited to attend the meeting, according to Lois Rambo, Passavant Club.
